A One Day Workshop on Environmental Conservation was successfully organized by the NSS Unit of Pune District Education Association's Seth Govind Raghunath Sable College of Pharmacy, Saswad, Pune, affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune, on 16 January 2026 at 2.00 pm. The workshop was organized with the objective of creating awareness among students regarding environmental protection, sustainability, and the responsibility of individuals and institutions towards conservation of natural resources.

The program began with the inauguration and welcome address delivered by Mrs. Pratibha Dhumal, who warmly welcomed the dignitaries, resource persons, faculty members, and students. She highlighted the relevance of environmental conservation in the present era and emphasized the need for active participation of youth in protecting the environment. This was followed by the preamble presented by Mr. S. K. Musale, NSS Program Officer, who explained the purpose of organizing the workshop under NSS activities and stressed the importance of environmental awareness and social responsibility among students.

Thereafter, the Principal of the college, Dr. Rajashree Chavan, addressed the gathering. In her inspiring speech, she emphasized the role of educational institutions in developing environmentally conscious citizens and encouraged students to adopt eco-friendly practices in their personal as well as professional lives. She also appreciated the efforts of the NSS unit in organizing such a meaningful program.

The first technical session on Environmental Conservation was conducted by Dr. Sachin Anil Puneekar, President, Biospheres, Pune. During the session, he explained various aspects of environmental conservation, including biodiversity preservation, climate change, sustainable development, and the impact of human activities on nature. The session was informative and interactive, and students gained valuable insights into current environmental challenges and possible solutions.

The second session was delivered by Mr. Ganeshkumar Sampatrao Zende, Group Senior Manager – EHS, Bajaj Finserv Ltd. He shared his industrial experience related to environmental, health, and safety practices. He highlighted the importance of environmental compliance, corporate responsibility, and sustainable industrial practices. The session helped students understand how industries can contribute positively towards environmental conservation.

At the end of the workshop, the vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. P. R. Gaikwad, who expressed sincere gratitude to the principal, resource persons, organizers, faculty members, and students for their valuable support and participation. The program concluded successfully at 4.45 pm.

Overall, the One Day Workshop on Environmental Conservation was highly informative and beneficial. It created awareness among students, motivated them to think responsibly towards the environment, and encouraged them to adopt sustainable practices in their daily lives. The workshop fulfilled its objectives and was appreciated by all the participants.
