"Report on World Environment Day-2026"

Theme: Water Conservation, Plastic Awareness & Seed Ball Making Workshop

Date: 05th June 2026

Time: 11:00 AM

No. Participants: 75

On the occasion of World Environment Day, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of college, organized an awareness program for staff and students. The event aimed to promote environmental sustainability through awareness on water conservation, reduction of plastic use, and active participation in eco-friendly initiatives.

Dr. Rajashree Chavan, Principal, highlighted the importance of World Environment Day and emphasized the need for sustainable living, water conservation, and reducing plastic use. She encouraged everyone to adopt eco-friendly practices and contribute towards environmental protection.

The Chief Guest for the program, Mr. Pravin More, Chairman, Subhadra Mauli Pratisthan, Pune, was felicitated by the Principal in recognition of his dedicated work towards environmental and social causes. During his enlightening address, Mr. More spoke extensively on the topics of Water Conservation and Plastic Awareness. He emphasized the urgent need to conserve water resources, reduce plastic consumption, and adopt environmentally responsible habits. His practical suggestions and inspiring message motivated the audience to contribute actively towards environmental conservation.

As part of the celebration, the NSS Unit organized a Seed Ball Making Workshop in which students and staff actively participated and prepared more than 100 seed balls to support afforestation and increase green cover.

The entire event was efficiently coordinated by Mr. Sumit Musale under the able guidance of Dr. Rajashree Chavan, Principal, whose constant support and encouragement ensured the smooth planning and successful execution of all activities.
